Street Dance and Mark Opening of

Formal opening of the new Rappaport building on Ca-brillo avenue will be marked Friday night by a social gathering, to which the people of the Torrance district are cordially invited.

Sam Rappaport has arranged a splendid program for the entertainment of guests. The street in front of the building will be roped off for street dancing. Busch's orchestra will furnish the music.

Three retail stores will be formally opened to the public Friday evening. They are Rappaport's department store, The Beacon Drug company and Sam Seelig's.

Souvenirs will be presented to guests at the openings. Mr. Rappaport announces that first arrivals at the Rappaport store will receive handsome gifts.

The managers of the new Seelig store are planning special demonstrations for the public. Punch will be served in the Seelig store throughout the evening.

The Beacon Drug company is offering free kodaks, under
